...PURPOSE

DESIGN . . . in a chain of

Ideas, beliefs, and personalities

Interlacing to form color and character.

CONTRAST represented by a diversity of activities

As solemnity mixes with humor

And relaxation becomes work.

HARMONY, the fellowship

Of friends and faculty working together.

PERSPECTIVE: deepening thought, broader variety;

And height in striving toward a goal.

ACTION and ENTHUSIASM compose

The inner spirit of REVERE through

The many activities that are undertaken,

And enthusiastically completed.

...DESIGN

*Design frames the picture of REVERE.
In classes, lines, circles, angles
Are placed to form
A balanced whole.
Finally, by gaining a better
Picture of ourselves,
We design our own lives,
Patterned after our experiences at REVERE.*

...CONTRAST

*In the many different activities offered,
 In the various attitudes taken toward participation;
 In the quality of work done,
 And the people who do it . . .
 REVERE is contrast.*

...HARMONY

In music . . .

With the melodic strains of notes blending,

In friendship . . .

Some long, others only a week-old

Harmony is always present,

In the delight of doing things together

That if done alone, would mean so little.

...PERSPECTIVE

*To be able to take a thorough look at life . . .
Is perspective.
Through our days at Revere,
We are presented with the chance
To view many types of people.
We learn about a variety of things . . .
Always broadening our thoughts and beliefs.*

...ACTION

*In an infinite variety of ways
 REVERE is constantly on the move.
 In class, on field trips;
 Earning money for school organizations.
 From 8:00 in the morning
 Till 6:00 at night . . .
 REVERE seldom stops to rest.*

...ENTHUSIASM

Crowds cheering, students yelling

As the team goes on to victory . . .

Or defeat.

Enthusiasm is shown not only through sports;

It is reflected in the attitude taken

Toward classes, clubs, and competition.

... ADMINISTRATION

Supervisors . . .

At the top to hand down the policies;

Teachers . . .

In the classroom to direct and guide;

Those behind the scenes . . .

So important in helping to make REVERE.

MRS. LUCILLE WYATT
President

JAMES JACKSON
Vice President

BOARD

MAKES DECISIONS

The Bath-Richfield Board of Education is the foundation of our school system. It's six members, who are elected to their positions, handle such important tasks as hiring new teachers, selecting new textbooks, deciding school policies, regulating salary scales, and governing tax funds for new buildings, repairs, and new equipment needed by our schools.

ADMINISTRATORS SPEAK

Mr. Harold Schweisberger
Superintendent of Bath-Richfield Schools

The pages of this book reflect your yesterday, and its wide scope of activities — class work, clubs, sports, and social affairs. These are now your past.

Today is now, and there is much to be done. You must be at your tasks, for tomorrow's success is only a possibility shaped by today's efforts. Today's successes are the result of yesterday's labors.

Mr. Eugene Miller
Assistant Superintendent

Our democratic form of government recognizes the fact that education is basic for its survival. The Bath-Richfield School District also realizes the need for good education and has made a determined effort to give this opportunity to the young people of our community.

Education, however, does not stop with the completion of high school. You will graduate with the basic tools: from that point forward your education will be your responsibility. You are fortunate that you can assume this responsibility because in many countries, young people are not permitted to choose the educational pattern they wish to follow.

Our sincere good wishes will always follow you.

Mr. George Bayliss
Principal of Revere High School

For seniors this annual represents a pictorial view of your last year in high school. Years from now it will bring back many memories of high school — some sad, some happy. All of you have spent 12 years acquiring a formal education; but your education has only started, for a person stands still if he doesn't continue to learn throughout life. Some of you will continue your formal education; others will not. However, if you take pride in what you are doing, you will continue to succeed. Our hopes for success go with you.

Without these ladies many of us would have gone hungry at noon. They worked hard five days a week preparing our good, nutritious lunches.

"Sing a song of soapsuds, Wash and scrape some more!"

These are familiar words to the students who worked in the cafeteria. These students relinquished a study period to assist the cooks in the kitchen. For services rendered they were paid and also received free lunches.

The cooks worked busily for two periods each day feeding a mob of hungry Reverites.

Row 1: Kay Gowin, Susan Plumb, Judy Moore, Elaine Rice, David Bland.

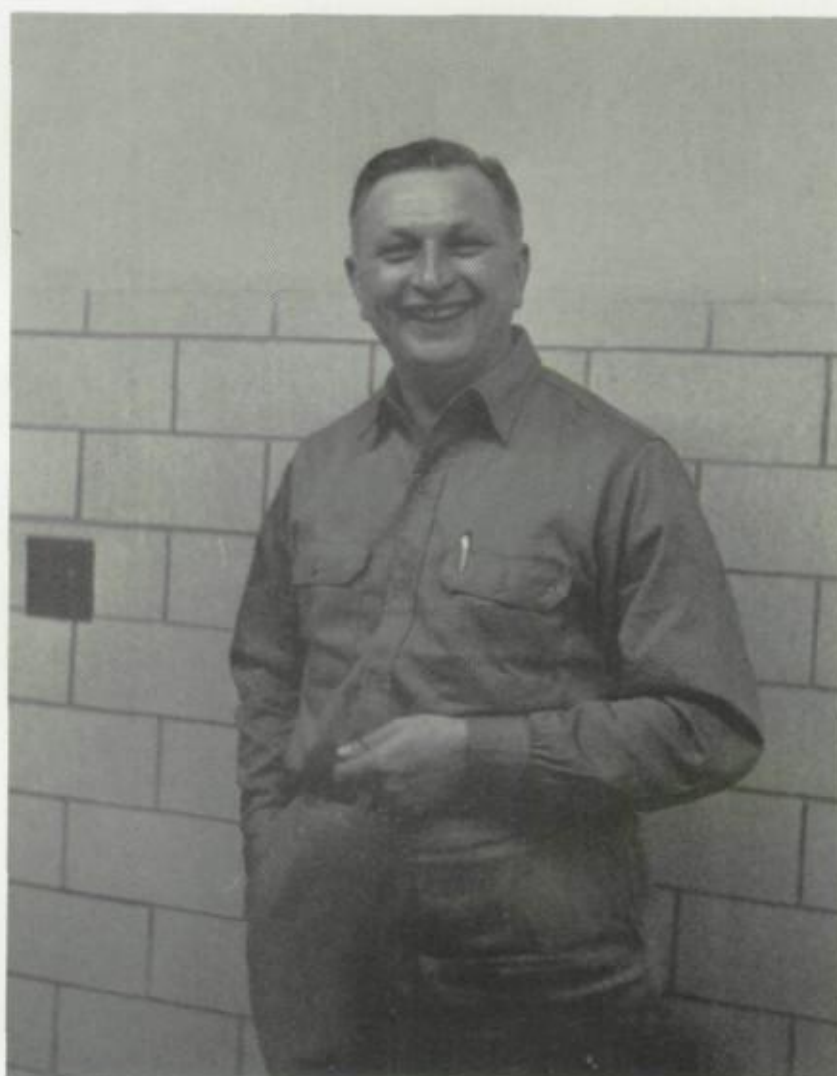

Row 2: Todd Kuzior, Bob Nilsen, Bruce Evans, Tom Turk worked in the kitchen.

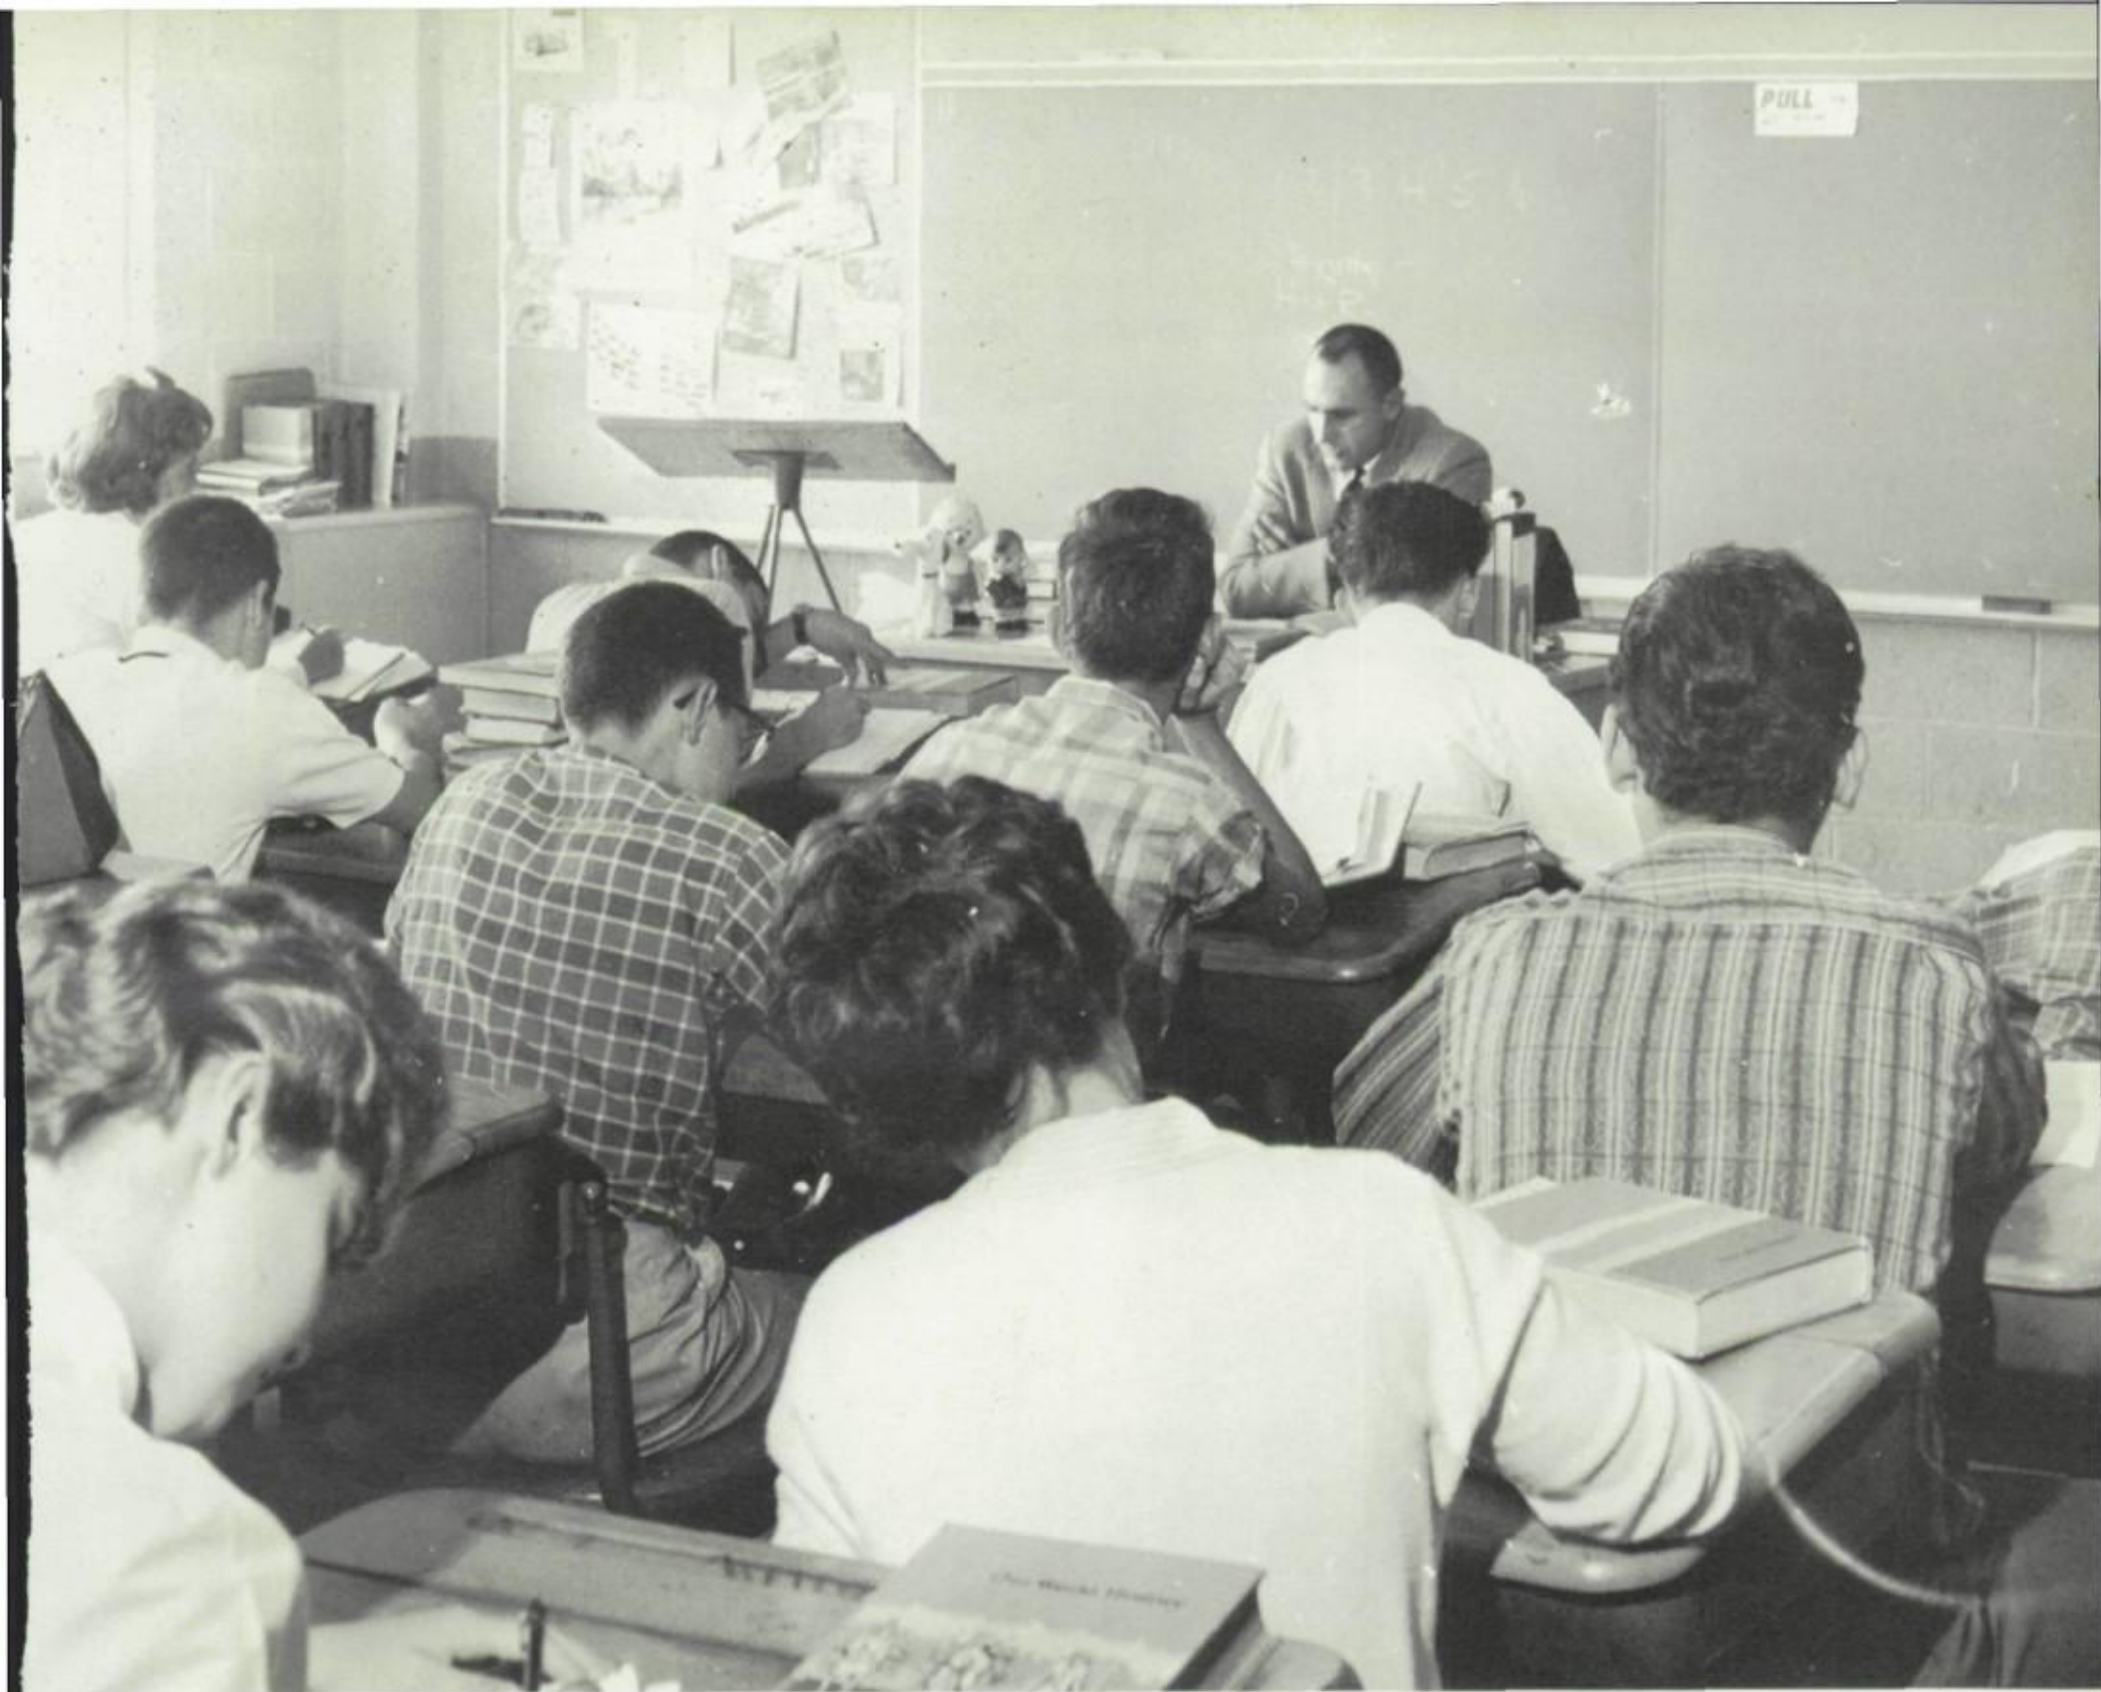

"Buzzy" Davis

Thanks to our hard-working custodians, Revere was kept in good condition. Few of us realized the long and extra hours they contributed to keep up our school. After school and at night activities, during weekends, summers, and school days, they were busy with many and varied duties.

Stanley Kunas

... CLASSES

*Classes — the main divisions of a school.
Competing against each other
In scholarship and sports . . .
    (each proud . . . maintaining "Ours is best")
But becoming a cohesive unit
When upholding the honor of Revere.*

HONORARIES GAIN MEMBERS

Inducted into Quill and Scroll, national journalism honorary, were: Taketoshi Kinoshita, Jeff Wisnieski, Doug Smith, Sue Vance, Keith Simek, Joell Liebert, Diane Cooper, Sharon Carlson, Kathy Fogarty, Sue Davidson, David James, Karen Fry.

AWARDS DAY HONORS MANY

By accumulating over 200 activity points in their four years at Revere, Jeff Wisnieski, Nancy Hepler, Nancy Robson and Tanya Crile received their second activity awards.

Mrs. Virginia Ocasek presented the Betty Crocker Homemaker Award to Vicki Davis, the senior girl who scored the highest on a test given to all senior girls.

Mr. Roy Pugh presented eight pictures to the students and faculty of Revere as a result of money left in his trust by the senior classes at Bath High School during World War II.

BUSINESS GIRLS HAVE BRIGHT FUTURE

Judy Lynch received the Outstanding Business Student award from Mr. Richard Horn.

Nancy Weiland's award was for the top spelling score.

Judy Lynch, Joyce Fisher, Sally Meyer, and Bev Banner received certificates for high dictation rates in Shorthand II.

Members of Revere's 1963 Championship Team with Coach Jack Greynolds and the Sub Trophy.

SPORTS HELP PUT R

Revere's Mighty Minutemen Basketball Team spread the name of Revere throughout the Summit County Area as it advanced to face the Buchtel Griffins in the finals of sectional tournament play. People in the area gained respect for the "little country school" as the team fought within four points of the Griffins as the final whistle blew. Then Preston Stewart carried Revere's name to Columbus and placed fourth in the state in the heavyweight division of the state wrestling finals. Thus through clean, fair play and hard work, Revere's athletes brought honors to themselves and to their school.

Preston Stewart and his trophy from

Jill Schumacher and Dave Vowles received the Womanhood and Manhood Awards. Each was chosen from a field of four candidates by the faculty and the National Honor Society.

Preston Stewart received double honors from Mr. Klomp. He was given a third-year wrestling award and also was awarded a trophy for capturing fourth place in the state in the heavyweight division.

AWARDS DAY LAUDS THE OUTSTANDING

Christie MacDonald received a trophy for the best performance of the year from Mr. Lavrich. She portrayed Mme. Constance in The Mad woman of Chaillot.

Taketoshi Kinoshita was presented with his class ring by Mr. Bayliss.

...SPORTS

*Roughness, toughness, knocks and blows . . .

WITH GRIDIRON

Revere had a successful season. Their impressive record of 5 wins, 2 losses, and 2 ties was the result of the team's energy and courage, and the indomitable school spirit which followed the Minutemen as they faced their opponents.

Three seniors made the All-Suburban Team: Bob Stopak, Guard; Preston Stewart, Center; and Alan Kerkian, Tackle. Bob Stopak also made the All-District Team. Six Minutemen received Honorable Mention in the Suburban League; they were: Don Raynor, Pat McCollum, Jerry Holderfield, Bob Kelley, John Bergvall, and Jeff Wisnieski. We hope that next year's season will be as successful.

John Bergvall kicks off to start another exciting football game.

REVERE RULES SUBURBIA

With their outstanding drive, marksmanship, and spirit, Revere's Minutemen went forward into another basketball season. They compiled an outstanding 18-3 record on the hardwood on their way to the Suburban League Championship.

If it hadn't been for the close loss to Green, the Minutemen would have had a clean record in league play. In a non-league game with Saint Vincent, they lost despite their efforts against the tough-contending city school.

In tournament play, Revere was seeded third in the Akron Area Sectionals. The Minutemen bounced back, after having been defeated once by Green, and beat them, 52-45. This was a bigger victory for Revere than beating Garfield in their second tournament game. Even though Buchtel beat Revere in their third game, the Minutemen showed the Griffins a tough fight.

Through graduation the Minutemen will lose three top seniors: Dave Vowles, Ron Larson, and Don Raynot; but they will have Jeff Springer, Bob Kelley, Gary Major, and other up-coming sophomores for a promising team next year.

On the Varsity Team this year were: Don Raynor, Jon Wolf, Dave Vowles, Jeff Wisnieski, Ron Larson, Dave Newman, Jeff Springer, Bob Kelley and Gary Major.

The Reserve Team consisted of: Kneeling: C. Harper and D. Pandy. Second Row: D. Ruch, Manager; C. Tate, B. Hepler, B. Koudelda, Manager; T. Sawyer, D. Murphy, and G. Howsley, Manager. Third Row: B. Storrs, J. Wolf, E. Herpmann, R. Jelm, and H. Pohlmeier.

MINUTEMEN ARE GR-R-REAT

The Reserve Cheerleaders were: Sally Wilson, Mary Linder, Sue Newman, Co-Captain; Penny Bending, Co-Captain; and Charlene Scuba.

The head wrestler: Mr. Pete Klomp.

Teammates: Rick McDonald and Dan Najsztup.

“RASSLERS” DO

The Varsity Wrestlers this year were: First Row: Rick McClellan, Dan Kresty, Rick McDonald, and Rex Rhinesmith. Second Row: Dan Najsztup, Richard Myers, Fred DiFiore, Preston Stewart, Dave Wilson, and Phil Angelo.

BEST YET

This wrestling season has been the best season we've had to date. Though we did not become Suburban Champions, we did qualify our Heavyweight, Preston Stewart, for the State Tournament. For three years Preston has been an outstanding wrestler in this district. This year he beat most of the best in the state by finishing fourth in Columbus, which is an outstanding achievement.

Also this season the squad was beleaguered with Sophomores carrying six team positions. Only three Seniors and two Juniors finished the starting squad.

Next season, with the returning lettermen giving the team added strength through experience and an increasing number of boys who participate, our team will go over the top on success.

The graduating Seniors were: Preston Stewart, Captain; Fred DiFiore, 154; Rick McDonald, 120; and Steve Thomas, 145.

S. C. STIMULATES STUDENT BODY

"Are there any suggestions as to what Student Council can do for the school or for the student body?" Through questions like this, asked of the students, Student Council worked to better the school.

Besides asking for suggestions, Council performed various service projects such as cleaning the flags in the gym, choosing football and basketball cheerleaders, and selling candy at noon for the first semester. For the students' entertainment Council sponsored all Homecoming festivities, the Summit County Cheerleading Contest in March, and the May Dance.

Dave Vowles, President; Tanya Crile, Secretary; Mr. Knapp, Adviser; Barb Osborne, Vice President; and Pam Tenney, Treasurer, guided Student Council activities throughout the year.

HONOR STUDENTS

LEAD AND SERVE

In charge of the affairs of the National Honor Society were Mrs. Smeal, Advisor; Nancy Hepler, Secretary; Dave Vowles, Treasurer; Tanya Crile, President; and Jeff Wisnieski, Vice President.

"See that wastebasket? Throw the paper in the wastebasket. Clean up!"

Again this year the National Honor Society promoted a clean-up campaign to make Revere sparkle. Another big project was to secure for Mr. Bartoo the addresses of all past Revere graduates from 1959 to 1962. As services to RHS, N.H.S. members cleaned the trophy cases, polished the trophies, and directed many visitors, including the foreign-exchange teachers visiting Akron, throughout the school.

On October 30, State Senator Oliver Ocasek spoke to Reverites on the topic, "Freedom is not Free," at the induction ceremony of 20 new members into N.H.S.

N.H.S. members were, Seated: Mr. Bayliss and Mrs. Smeal, Advisors. First Row: Nancy Hepler, Pam Tenney, Dave Vaughn, Nancy Robson, Nancy Banchek, Joell Liebert, Cynthia McKisson, Linda Bolinger, Michele Fry, Sue Davidson, Kathy Fogarty, Mary Ellen Javorsky, Sue Snodgrass,

Serving as Hi-Y officers were, Seated: Mr. Horn, Adviser; Ron Larson, President. Standing: Paul Hershey, Sergeant-At-Arms; Jim McElroy, Treasurer; Whit Andrew, Vice President; Carl Douglass, Chaplain; Doug Smith, Secretary.

Participating in Hi-Y basketball is just one of the many activities of the members of Revere's Hi-Y, a boys' organization sponsored by the YMCA. Members also helped to sponsor Ho Sui, their Korean foster child, and participated in the Youth-in-Government which was held in Columbus.

Nancy Hepler was elected as Revere's Hi-Y Sweetheart to compete with other representatives of Summit County Hi-Y's, for the title of Hi-Y Queen.

The Hi-Y seeks to promote clean speech, clean sportsmanship, clean living, and clean scholarship in the American youth.

Y-Teen cabinet members were: S. Snodgrass, J. Kiehl, T. Tramba, N. Bancheek, N. Robson, Vice President; Mrs. Hess, Adviser; N. Hepler, Secretary; S. Newman, T. Kyriakides, President; G. Cheslock, Treasurer; S. Brostedt, G. Rumbaugh, K. Ulrich, and V. Davis.

Junior and sophomore Y-Teen members, Row 1: L. Bolinger, D. Burkett, R. Macey, M. Javorsky, A. Kehoe, S. MacIntyre, J. Plazak, and S. Stalnaker. Row 2: C. McKisson, T. Tramba, D. Strong, C. Laughlin, T. Fulton, E. Kearney, B. Stoffko, J. Liebert, and S. Carlson. Row 3: S. Snodgrass, S. Richmann, M. Haynes, S. Newman, B. Osborne, S. Brostedt, P. Bending, S. Vance, and S. Pandey. Row 4: G. Wilson, D. Cooper, S. Franks, J. Tiff, S. Penzenik, J. Hall, V. Hutchison, K. Barr, J. Kiehl, and C. Cauffield. Row 5: G. Lindus, S. Winemiller, L. Wentink, V. SirLouis, J. Lasser, B. Douglass, J. Henderson, C. Jones, N. Welton, and C. Schwager. Row 6: D. Adkins, M. Monegan, D. Adkins, S. Bolinger, J. McCarthy, A. Bonney, C. Ernst, M. Linder, M. Pim, and N. Douglass. Row 7: L. McClure, K. Gowin, G. Baumgardner, S. Wagner, B. Falk, D. Feiber, C. Smith, F. McClellan, J. Mostoller, G. Floyd, and J. Hanson. Row 8: C. Komar, P. Leicht, E. Rice, C. Wohler, P. Waidler, M. Adams, T. Hosterman, A. Fairweather, L. Smeal, S. Wilson, and K. Rivers. Row 9: L. Jennings, C. Scuba, and M. Willey.

YOUTH FACES IDEALS

Y-Teens is a girls' organization, sponsored by the YWCA, to promote service to the school and the community. Revere's chapter carried out this objective by helping to sponsor Ho Sui, sponsoring the annual Christmas Formal on December 28, and bringing in speakers on various topics of interest to the members. Through these projects the girls sought to achieve their goal which is, "to build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians."

ENERGY, SPIRIT SPARK SPORTS

Joan Kiel, President; Becky Crile, Treasurer; Vikki Rajnicek, Vice President; Mary Ellen Javorsky, Secretary; and Miss Krichbaum, Adviser, lead the activities for the G.A.A.

Galloping through briar patches, dunking each other at the YWCA swimming pool, acquiring huge blisters from roller skates. . . .

These and others seem to be the favorite pastimes of the members of the Girls' Athletic Association at RHS. Practically every sport within reason has been attempted by these athletically-minded girls. Besides earning points for G.A.A. awards, the girls had great fun and many laughs.

Last fall, for the first time in several seasons, the cheerleaders organized a Pep Club to promote school spirit. Besides having a regular cheering section at all football games, the club, under the direction of the cheerleaders and a special committee of a boy and girl from each class, sponsored canteens after home games, chartered spectator buses for away games, made posters for the games, and originated pep rallies.

Working on posters to boost school spirit were Pep Club Committee members Karen Steiner, Carole Smith, Rex Rhinesmith, Barb Osborne, Chuck Tate, Jere Shafer, and Miss Krichbaum, Adviser.

"Aaaaaaw-a-aaaaaw-a-aaaaaw!"

It may have sounded like Tarzan, but it was probably only a Revere Letterman walking down the hall. The members consisted of all students who received athletic letters for any varsity sport, managing, or cheerleading.

Although this organization was not active this year, the cheerleaders sponsored canteens to raise money for the chartered buses to away football and basketball games.

Don Raynor, Nancy Robson, Dave Vowles, Mrs. Cote, Jeff Wisnieski, Tanya Crile, Nancy Hepler, Taketoshi Kinoshita worked to promote the A. F. S. spirit at Revere.

REVERITES EXPLORE AND DISCOVER

This year an American Field Service Student Committee was organized under the direction of Mrs. Cote to promote the A.F.S. in the school and to assist Taketoshi in becoming acquainted. The six members and Taketoshi sold Christmas cards designed by foreign students, and in February sponsored an International Day with the foreign exchange students from Hudson, Tallmadge, and Copley taking part.

"7:50 A.M.? Are you out of your mind?"

With these words a budding scientist learned of the Science Club's field trip to the NASA science fair in Cleveland. This was the first major activity of the year, but the club also attended lectures, built various mechanical devices, and held regular meetings. Members consisted of interested students with an 80 accumulative average and a class in either chemistry or physics.

Science Club members, First Row: Nancy Hepler, Secretary; Janet Szereto; Joell Liebert, Sue Davidson, Michele Fry. Second Row: Mark Gross, Cliff Broch, Roy Stewart, Doug

PASS? PASS? WHO'S GOT THE PASS?

Is it the sharp barking of a drill sergeant? Well, no, not exactly; it's only a Revere hall monitor yelling menacingly, "Where's your pass?"

The purpose of the Monitor system, which was revived this year, is to keep order in the halls. If students didn't have passes, the monitors were very understanding . . . only four days' detention. Running in the halls, being late for classes, and causing disturbances were a few of the other non-conformist actions by which a student might have found himself in an extra study hall — during his lunch period.

Ah, she's studying! I can sneak by without a pass!

"There will be a Y-Teen meeting tomorrow morning . . ."

Now, isn't that beautiful? All those pear-shaped tones? Just imagine! Maybe its Miss Monitor and the next thing you'll hear will be, "Atlanta, 73; Boston, 56; Waukegan, 61."

Nope. It never happened. It was only a student announcer being informative. Each of these students, chosen by Student Council, spent one six-weeks period announcing any and all little bits of interest to the student body.

Mr. Bayliss, Sue Bollinger, Camilla Laughlin, Christy MacDonald, Charlene Scuba, David James, and Mr. Knapp made morning announcements.

Did you ever notice that smiling, bubbling, cheerful girl sitting at the large desk in the library? Well, that charming creature was one of Mrs. Hess' faithful helpers who spent one study period a day filing cards, checking books in and out, securing ancient magazines for government students, and checking library passes.

HELPERS, HELPERS EVERYWHERE

Librarians, Seated: Beverly Banner, Nancy Robson, Thalia Jan Tewksbury, Randy Macey, Jody Copenhaver, Tanya Kyriakides, Karen Rivers. Standing: Charlotte McCutcheon, Crile, Dana Adkins, and Dinah Adkins.

Seated: Mrs. Steffen, Mrs. Davidson. Standing: Nancy Robson, Sally Meyer, Donna Weaver, Caren Butcher, Bonnie Falk, Jill Schumacher, Jennie Plazak, Nancy Banchek, Patty Whitfield, Jean Luther, Ginny Cheslock, Pam Tenney, and Dorothy Luther kept office procedures running smoothly.

"Did someone turn in a lab book here?"

"Where's the lost and found?"

The students answering these queries were the office helpers chosen by Mr. Bayliss at the beginning of the year. It was their job to assist Mrs. Steffen and Mrs. Davidson, secretaries, in all possible ways.

"What would they have done without us?" is the question asked by the teachers' assistants.

Running off papers on the mimeograph, typing and filing were only a few of the duties expected of these girls who were chosen and assigned to their respective teachers by Mr. Knapp and Mr. Horn.

Mrs. Hess shows Caren Butcher and Jane Russell how to file cards.

Assisting teachers were: First Row: Sherry Guckeyson, Sandy Rapsky, Donna Weaver, Penny Bending, Karen Steiner, Penny Becker, Nancy Hepler. Second Row: Merlyn Mohn, Nancy Rumbaugh, Linda Bolinger, Ginny Cheslock. Third Row: Rose Mary Owens, Marsha Burkett, Barb Stofko, Charlotte McCutcheon. Fourth Row: Becky Crile, Aida Kehoe, Bancy Banchek, Kathy Ulrich. Fifth Row: Arlene Miller, Mary Ellen Javorsky, Sue Vance, Ginny Rumbaugh. Sixth Row: Jackie Pierson, Sandy Stalnaker, Donna Burkett, Jeannie Curry. Seventh Row: Mary Michalski, Gayle Shively, Kathy Fogarty, Lynn Gowin, and Janet Clark.

Projectionists were Jay Brown, Bob Nilson, Frank Novak, Ron Noland, Dave Anderson, Bob Yehle, Dave Ruch, Jim Don Shook, Jerry Lyson, Mr. Pamer, Adviser; Bob Etzel, McElroy, Jack Cernik, and Jim Krejci.

One of the most appreciated student helpers at Revere was the projectionist. Why? Well, who didn't enjoy missing class lectures and discussions to see a movie!

Under the direction of Mr. Pamer, projectionists operated all audio-visual aids for the teachers.

...MORE HELPERS

Ticket takers spent their noon periods on Fridays selling tickets to all home and away football and basketball games. At home basketball games they collected tickets.

Selling tickets for athletic events were: Jackie Pierson, Pat Whitfield, Connie Ernst, Linda Smeal, Mr. Baker, Adviser.

Football Spotters: Nancy Robson, Tanya Crile, Dave Vowles, Mr. Knapp.

"It's number 87."

"You're crazy; it's 78."

"What did you say his name is—Bones, Cones?"

"No, Mr. Knapp, it's Jones!"

So went the preliminary scramble before Mr. Knapp finally booms out who carried that football and who tackled him. This year Mr. Knapp and his football spotters watched and reported from a brand new press box located above the new bleachers.

Now, girls, remember you must be impartial at all times throughout the game," said the man in the zebra-striped shirt.

Well, how do you keep an enthusiastic basketball scorekeeper quiet when a basket is scored? You don't! But with the calm aid of Mr. Knapp, four girls pushed the little buttons which made the score go up — for our team, of course.

Nancy Robson, Ginny Cheslock, Mr. Knapp, Barb Osborne, and Tanya Crile kept tabs on all points scored at home basketball games.

“LANTERN” LIGHTS

The “New Look” came to the Lantern under the guise of a new printer. The page editors, for the first time, were able to check galley proofs for mistakes, and everyone agreed that there was a great improvement. More cuts also brightened Revere’s newspaper.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Virginia Ocasek, the staff brought out eleven issues, one every three weeks. The staff further improved the paper by attending journalism clinics in the area and by accepting constructive criticism from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and the National Quill and Scroll.

Working on layouts were: Standing: N. Robson, P. Bending, C. Kunas, M. Schaadt, J. Lloyd, K. Rivers, L. Jennings. Seated: K. Fogarty, C. MacDonald, C. Ernst, D. James, S. Newman, B. Crile, L. Pierson, S. Matthews, C. McKisson.

Looking at the final pages were Nancy Heppler, Co-editor; Mr. Daniel, Adviser, and Tanya Crile, Co-editor.

"Aaugh!"

"So what, not everyone can write witty, imaginative copy. Cheer up."

"How about this: 'Just Tanya and Mr. D. and Nancy make three . . . ?'"

"Forget it!"

Under the direction of Tanya Crile, Nancy Heppler, and Mr. Sheldon Daniel, adviser, the annual staff planned pages, took pictures, wrote and typed copy, went out for ads, and finally sent everything off to the printer with a sigh of relief.

For the first time, a separate business staff under Rick Barsan, business manager, was formed to direct the subscription drive and solicit advertising.

SPEAK THE SPEECH, I PRAY YOU

The plight of a member of the National Forensic League is, at times, one of heart-break and disgust, but, more often than not, it is a rewarding adventure in a high school student's career. Debate and individual events are the two main divisions in N. F. L. work. Individual events is divided into four sub-divisions: oratorical, humorous, and dramatic declamations, and extemporaneous speeches. The many Saturdays which members devoted to these activities gave them a chance to display their abilities of organization and preparation.

Serving as N.F.L. officers were: Donna Burkett, President; Kathy Fogarty, Secretary; Dan McDonald, Treasurer; Mr. Kungle, Adviser; and Orwin Youngquist, Vice President.

Participating in individual events are First Row: Karen Fry, Sue Bollinger, Patti McNair, Diane Cooper, Joell Liebert, Kathy Fogarty. Second Row: David James, Camilla Laughlin, Michele Fry, Joe Parker, and Esther Welser.

Tanya Crile, Accompanist; Mrs. Lindstrom, Director. Standing: Sue Vance, Janet Clark, Barbara Osborne, Mary Ann Fell, Ann Griesinger, Karen Steiner, Darlene Tichey, Gail Wilson, Elaine Skirvin, Linda Jennings, Sue Brostedt, Penny Becker.

"All right, now smile!" were the words of Mrs. Dolores Lindstrom, vocal music instructor, before a program.

The Glee Club, Sophomore Girls' Chorus, and the Girls' Ensemble presented a Christmas program and a spring concert. Other outside activities for the individual groups included the Summit County Music Festival, singing for the Thanksgiving service at the Montrose Zion EUB Church and presenting programs before such organizations as the P.T.A. and Akron Women's City Club.

NO FLATS HERE — NOTES

The Marching Minutemen—80 strong—had one of their most successful seasons this year. Under the direction of Mr. Robert Lutz and Mr. Bryson Fillmore, the band participated in such activities as the Ohio State Fair, the Massillon Band Show, and the Wilmington Band Show—not to mention all the football games. Perhaps the most impressive show was during halftime at the Copley game in Revere Stadium. At that time they presented their salute in honor of the Civil War Centennial, which they also presented at the Wilmington Band Show.

The band members again sold candy during the holiday season to help pay for new uniforms and eight new sousaphones.

Everyone must wear uniforms, sit up straight, and pay attention . . .

Just sitting on the bleachers watching the football players go by.

BAND PLAYS

CONCERTO

"Oh, no!" was the cry of any hapless student in the library ninth period who really wanted to study. As the music from the band room drifted across the hall, who could keep from listening?

Directed by Mr. Robert Lutz, the 65 members of the Concert Band practiced every day last period. This practicing culminated in their first annual Winter Concert, a Band-in-the-Round at Copley High School, the Summit County Music Festival, the Spring Concert, and the Memorial Day Parade.

Also, a flute quartet, composed of Anne Runninger, Linda Jennings, Mary Lou Pim, and Netty Douglass, participated in the District Solo and Ensemble Contest at Kent State University. Receiving a I, or superior rating, they participated in the State Contest on April 6.

Band officers were president, Jack Hawley; vice-president, Nancy Hepler; and secretary-treasurer and librarian, Judy Lynch.

"Oopps, I swallowed my mouthpiece!"

IN R.H.S. MAJOR

The Monsoon Season

MAJORETTES SPIN THEIR STUFF

Revere's marching band was led down the field by six smiling majorettes. These girls worked just as hard as the other band members and their work surely paid off. All six participated in the shows along with the band and sold candy to help purchase more uniforms and equipment. They were Sue Snodgrass, Barb Stofko, Gayle Wilson, Jill Schumacher, Christie MacDonald and Pam Tenney.

...ACTIVITIES

*An electric air of "busy" pervades the school,
As numerous activities take place.
Students labor on
Through phases of enthusiasm disappointment, and despair
To Pride — in the results of a project well done.*

BOOSTERS BUY BLEACHERS

During the spring and summer months of last year, the Revere Booster Club made plans for the purchasing, construction, and sale of reserved seats for the new stadium to be built on the west side of the football field. Volunteers from the community erected the bleachers on their free weekends. By Saturday, September 8, when they were presented and dedicated, the stands were ready to be occupied by energetic members of the community.

The 1,200-seat grandstand was filled by adults and children alike who were on hand to enjoy two quarters of exhibition football and a preview show presented by the Revere Marching Band. Republican Congressman William H. Ayres presented the school and community with a new American Flag which had been officially flown over the U.S. Capitol in Washington, D.C.

The new bleachers were packed, as members of the community turned out for the dedication of Revere's new football stadium.

Sue Newman, Mr. George Bayliss, and Mr. Max Snodgrass accepted the flag for the school and community from Representative Ayres.

An exhibition game was played by the Revere Minutemen at the Dedication ceremonies.

The football cheerleaders presented an Hawaiian pep rally for the student body.

SPIRIT SPARKS AS

Football Captain, Preston Stewart, crowned Homecoming Queen, Jill Schumacher, at half-time ceremonies.

CLIMBING TO THE STARS...

"Stairway to the Stars", the theme of the 1962 Homecoming Float and Dance, was chosen in the spring of 1962. During the summer months, Dave Vowles, Barb Osborne, and Sue Vance worked on the construction of the float which was presented at the half-time ceremonies on October 5. The aqua and white color scheme of the float at the Green game was also carried out at the dance held the following evening. Tanya Crile and her committee decorated the gym, in which the dance was held, with aqua and white crepe paper, and for a throne used the risers from the float which was decorated with tissue flowers, netting, and corrugated paper. Student Council, which sponsored the dance, presented the Homecoming Queen and her attendants with engraved chains as remembrances.

An enjoyable evening was had by students attending the dance.

Jill Schumacher, attended by her court, reigned over the 1962 Homecoming Dance.

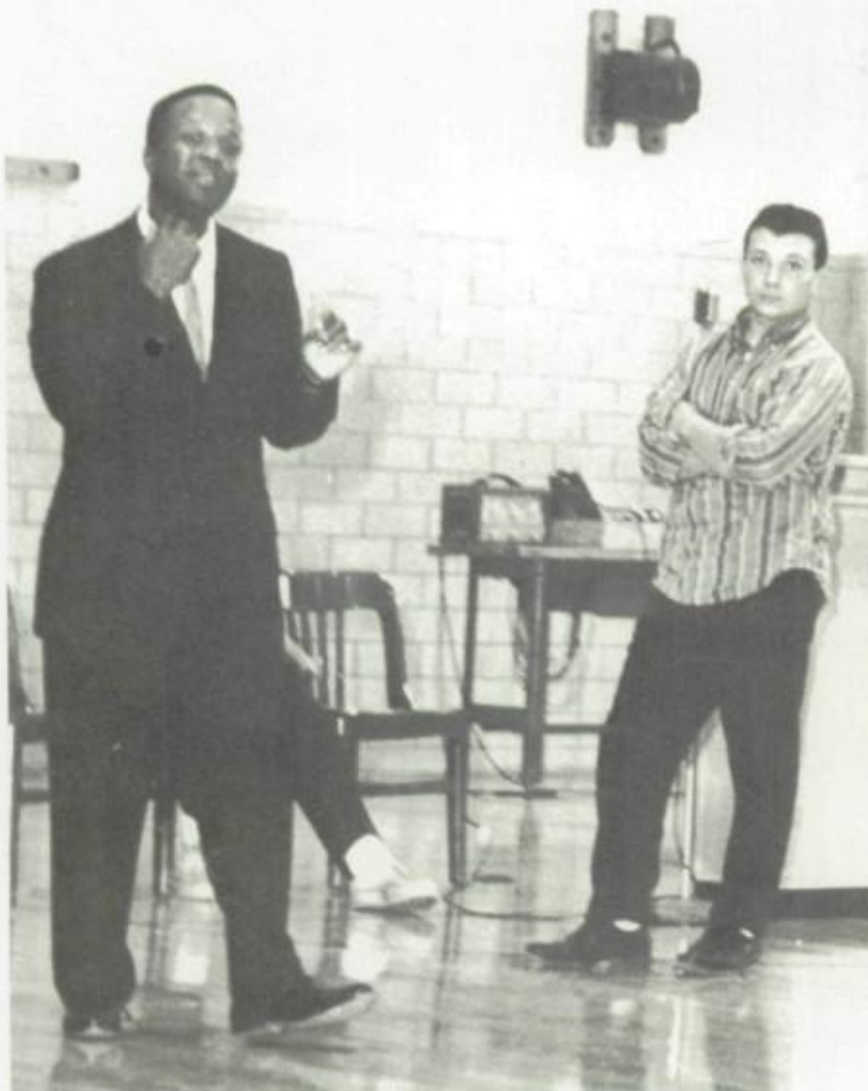

Mr. Charles King directed the harmonizing of Gary Griesinger, Tammy Tramba, Jackie Mostoller, and Mike Reymond in the assembly which he presented on October 4.

LA RIDICULOSO

Could Gary be wondering if Mr. King's vitality is real or just a figment of his imagination?

Sing along with Mr. King!

The opera, "Music Master" was presented by the Detroit Opera Company on October 5 and was sponsored by the Children's Concert Society.

The Y-Teen picnic at Thalia Kyriakides' brought toasts and cheers — but have no fear, it was not beer.

STUDENTS GROUP FOR FUN AND FUNCTIONS

Providing the leadership for the 1962 Fun vs. Vandalism campaign in their respective schools were: Russell Reighley, Woodridge; Don Raynor, Revere; and Don Fisher, Buchtel. Giving words of inspiration were Akron U. Athletic Director Denneth "Red" Cochrane and Zip Football captain Tom Adolph. Cochrane was honorary chairman of the 18th annual Fun vs. Vandalism effort sponsored in Akron and Summit County by the Touchdown Club.

"Curses, foiled again," moaned David James as he was exposed by Bob Stopak, Gayle Wilson, Cliff Steffan, Camilla Laughlin, Lori Rand, and Kathy Ulrich.

"Lori Rand always gets her man," sighed Bob Stopak, as he was watched by Cliff Steffan, Camilla Laughlin, Gayle Wilson, and Virginia Rumbaugh.

"OH WOE IS ME" OH LACK-A- DAY"

Chasing the villain can be fun, as about six hundred people found out during the two performances, November 16 and 17, of No Mother to Guide Her; or More to Be Pitied Than Censured by Anthony Forsythe.

A portly plutocrat was murdered, the hapless heroine threatened, and the vicious villain captured in the end, as the audience sighed in relief.

The play, directed by Mr. Thomas Lavrich, with technical direction by Mr. David Dickson, had a cast which included Gayle Wilson, Preston Stewart, Kathy Ulrich, Walt Kaminski, David James, Diane Cooper, Lori Rand, Pam Waidler, Gale Baumgardner, Bob Stopak, and Virginia Rumbaugh.

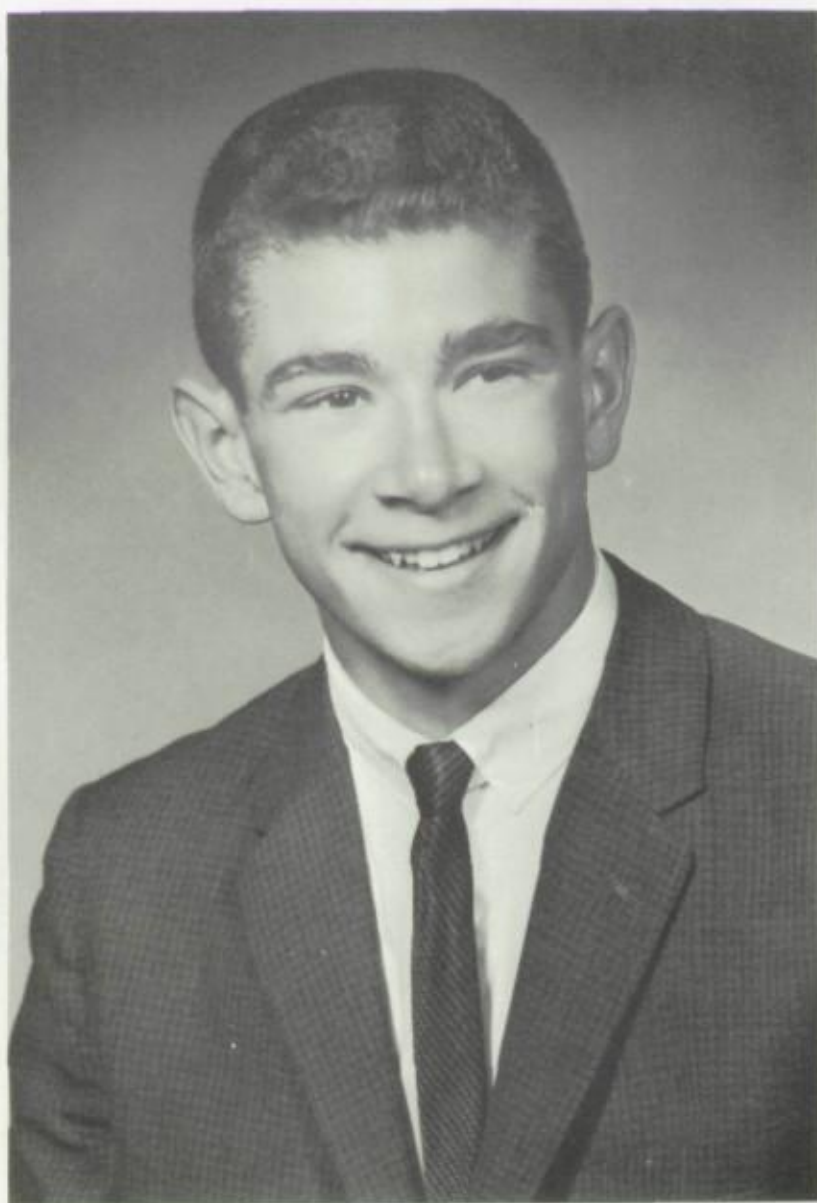

Syrupy speech earned Diane Cooper's confidence for David James as Lori Rand sat dejectedly by.

NANCY HEPLER was Revere's candidate for Hi-Y Queen at the annual Hi-Y Dance held at the Sheraton Hotel. A panel of judges selected three finalists from all the candidates. The girls were judged on their activities, scholarship, and poise. Each of the three finalists presented a speech at the dance and those in attendance at the dance voted on the candidates.

DAVE REIGNS OVER SUMMIT

DAVE VOWLES, Revere's Y-Teen choice for Y-Teen King, was selected All-County Y-Teen King. Dave, too, was judged on scholarship, activities, as well as sports. He was chosen King before the dance held at Memorial Hall and was crowned at intermission.

KATHY AND WHIT ARE SWEETHEARTS

Sweetheart Queen, Kathy Ulrich

Sweetheart King, Whit Andrew

The candidates for Sweetheart King and Queen were chosen from Hi-Y and Y-Teens. They are: Ricky McDonald, Nancy Hepler, Dave Newman, Thalia Kyriakides, Kathy Ulrich, Al Kerkian, Jill Schumacher, Dave Vowles, Nancy Robson, and Whit Andrew.

A mighty blow by the Minutemen brought enthusiastic cheers from the crowd, but Ron Schaadt seemed a bit discouraged about something. Could he have just sat on a fresh wad of gum?

COMMUNITY COLLECTS TO CHEER MINUTEMEN

"Anyone for Concentration?"

Nancy Robson, Tanya Crile, and Dave Vowles assisted Mr. Gordon Knapp in spotting players on the field.

The football season brought young and old alike to cheer the battling Minutemen.

Seniors Randy Gahan, Laurel Snyder, Charlotte McCutcheon, and Walt Kaminski enjoyed themselves at the intermission of the Christmas Dance.

The window at the west end of the hall was included in the decorations of the Student Council members.

Gary Griesinger's cheerful art work added to the spirit of Christmas.

YULE...

The Girl's Ensemble sang present-day Christmas carols for the concert.

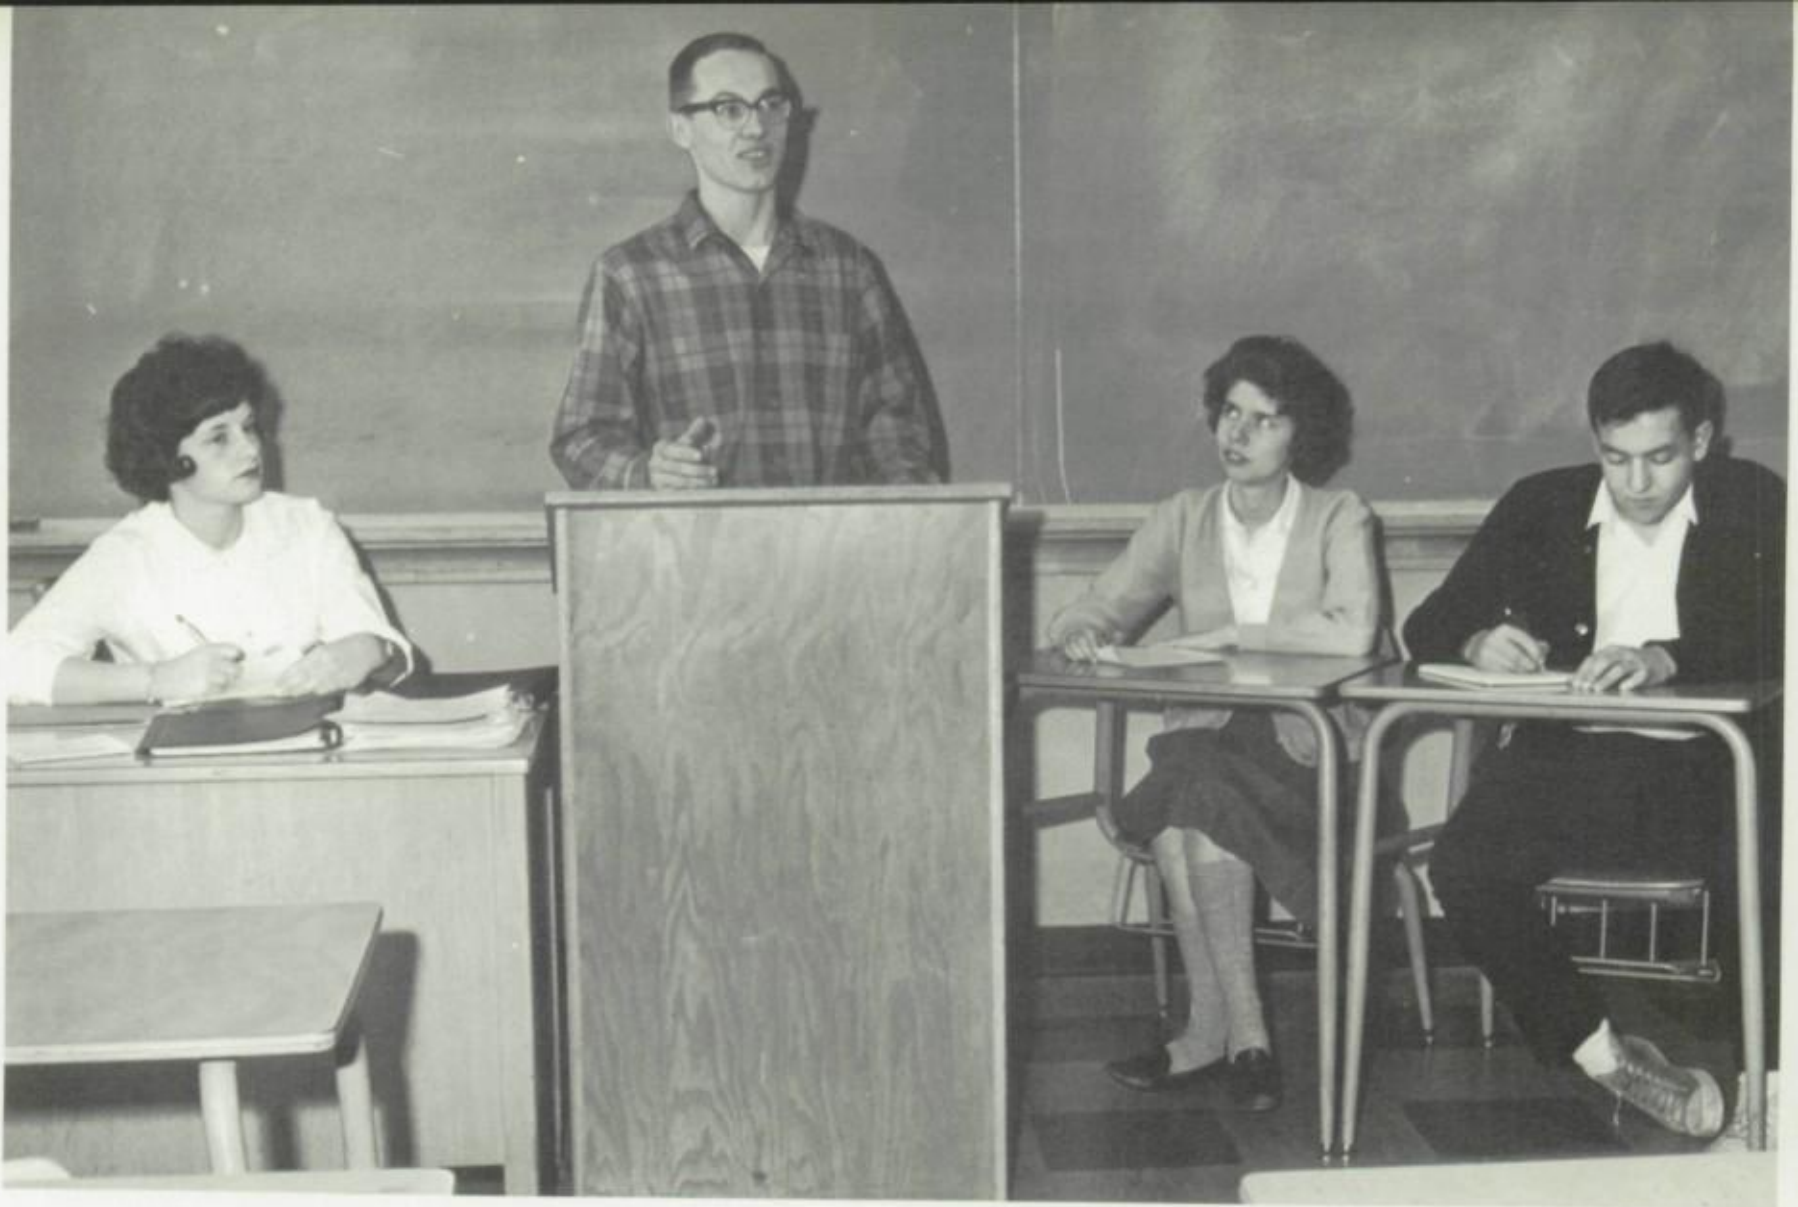

The Glee Club provided a Christmas Cantata while a shadow picture program depicted the life of Christ.

Religious songs were presented by the girls in the sophomore chorus.

Virginia Rumbaugh, Orwin Youngquist, Donna Burkett, and Tom Turk practiced their debate tactics in preparation for tournament competition.

TALK, TALK, TALK...

"I meant what I said, and I said what I meant, and an elephant's faithful — 100 per cent," said Dianne Cooper in humorous declamation "Horton Hatches the Egg."

Patti McNair works up so much nervous energy during the week that she screams her way through "Futility" three times every Saturday.

Joe Parker specialized in extemporaneous speaking, talking on different current topics.

Anne Frank was the character and "The Diary of Anne Frank" was the name of Karen Fry's dramatic declamation which she gave this past year.

Mr. Schweisberger spoke on "How Far the Moon" after dinner at the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Doug Smith gave a reading of the senior class will.

FUN, FROLICS, AND FOOD

David James read the first half of the senior prophecy.

Diane Cooper followed with the second half of the prophecy.

At the Junior-Senior Banquet, held on April 30, 1963, entertainment was provided by the Monarchs after the students and teachers had finished their meal.

Mr. Lutz led the band in its annual spring concert.

MUSIC, MUSIC, MUSIC

A solo by Linda Jennings was one of the highlights of the spring vocal concert.

SAKURA ODORI

"Sakura Odori!!" However, most Reverites knew it better as "Cherry Blossom Dance." With the help of a pagoda, a stone bridge, colored spotlights, and cherry blossoms adorning trees and bushes, Revere's Gym was transformed into a Japanese wonderland.

Nancy Robson and Ron Larson reigned as May Queen and King at the dance. They were crowned by senior attendants Walt Kaminski and Judy Lynch. Junior attendants were Jeff Springer and Sue Brostedt; and sophomore attendants were Herb Pohlmeier and Marilyn Adams.

"BREATH OF HEAVEN" IN MAY

Senior attendant Fred Winemiller crowned May Queen Bev Cavins while Cherry Jelms and King Tony Kaminski looked on.

Tony and Bev led the dance following the crowning ceremonies.

Tony Kaminski and Bev Cavins were attended by juniors, Jeff Wisniewski and Jill Schumacher; seniors, Fred Winemiller and Cherry Jelms; and sophomores, Barb Osborne and Jeff Springer.

Jeff Wisnieski delivered the valedictory speech, "Tolerance."

Esther Welser, Judy Lynch, Dave Strong, and Nancy Hepler formed a clarinet quartet to play "Caprice for Clarinets."

Salutatorian, Rick Barsan, also delivered a speech.

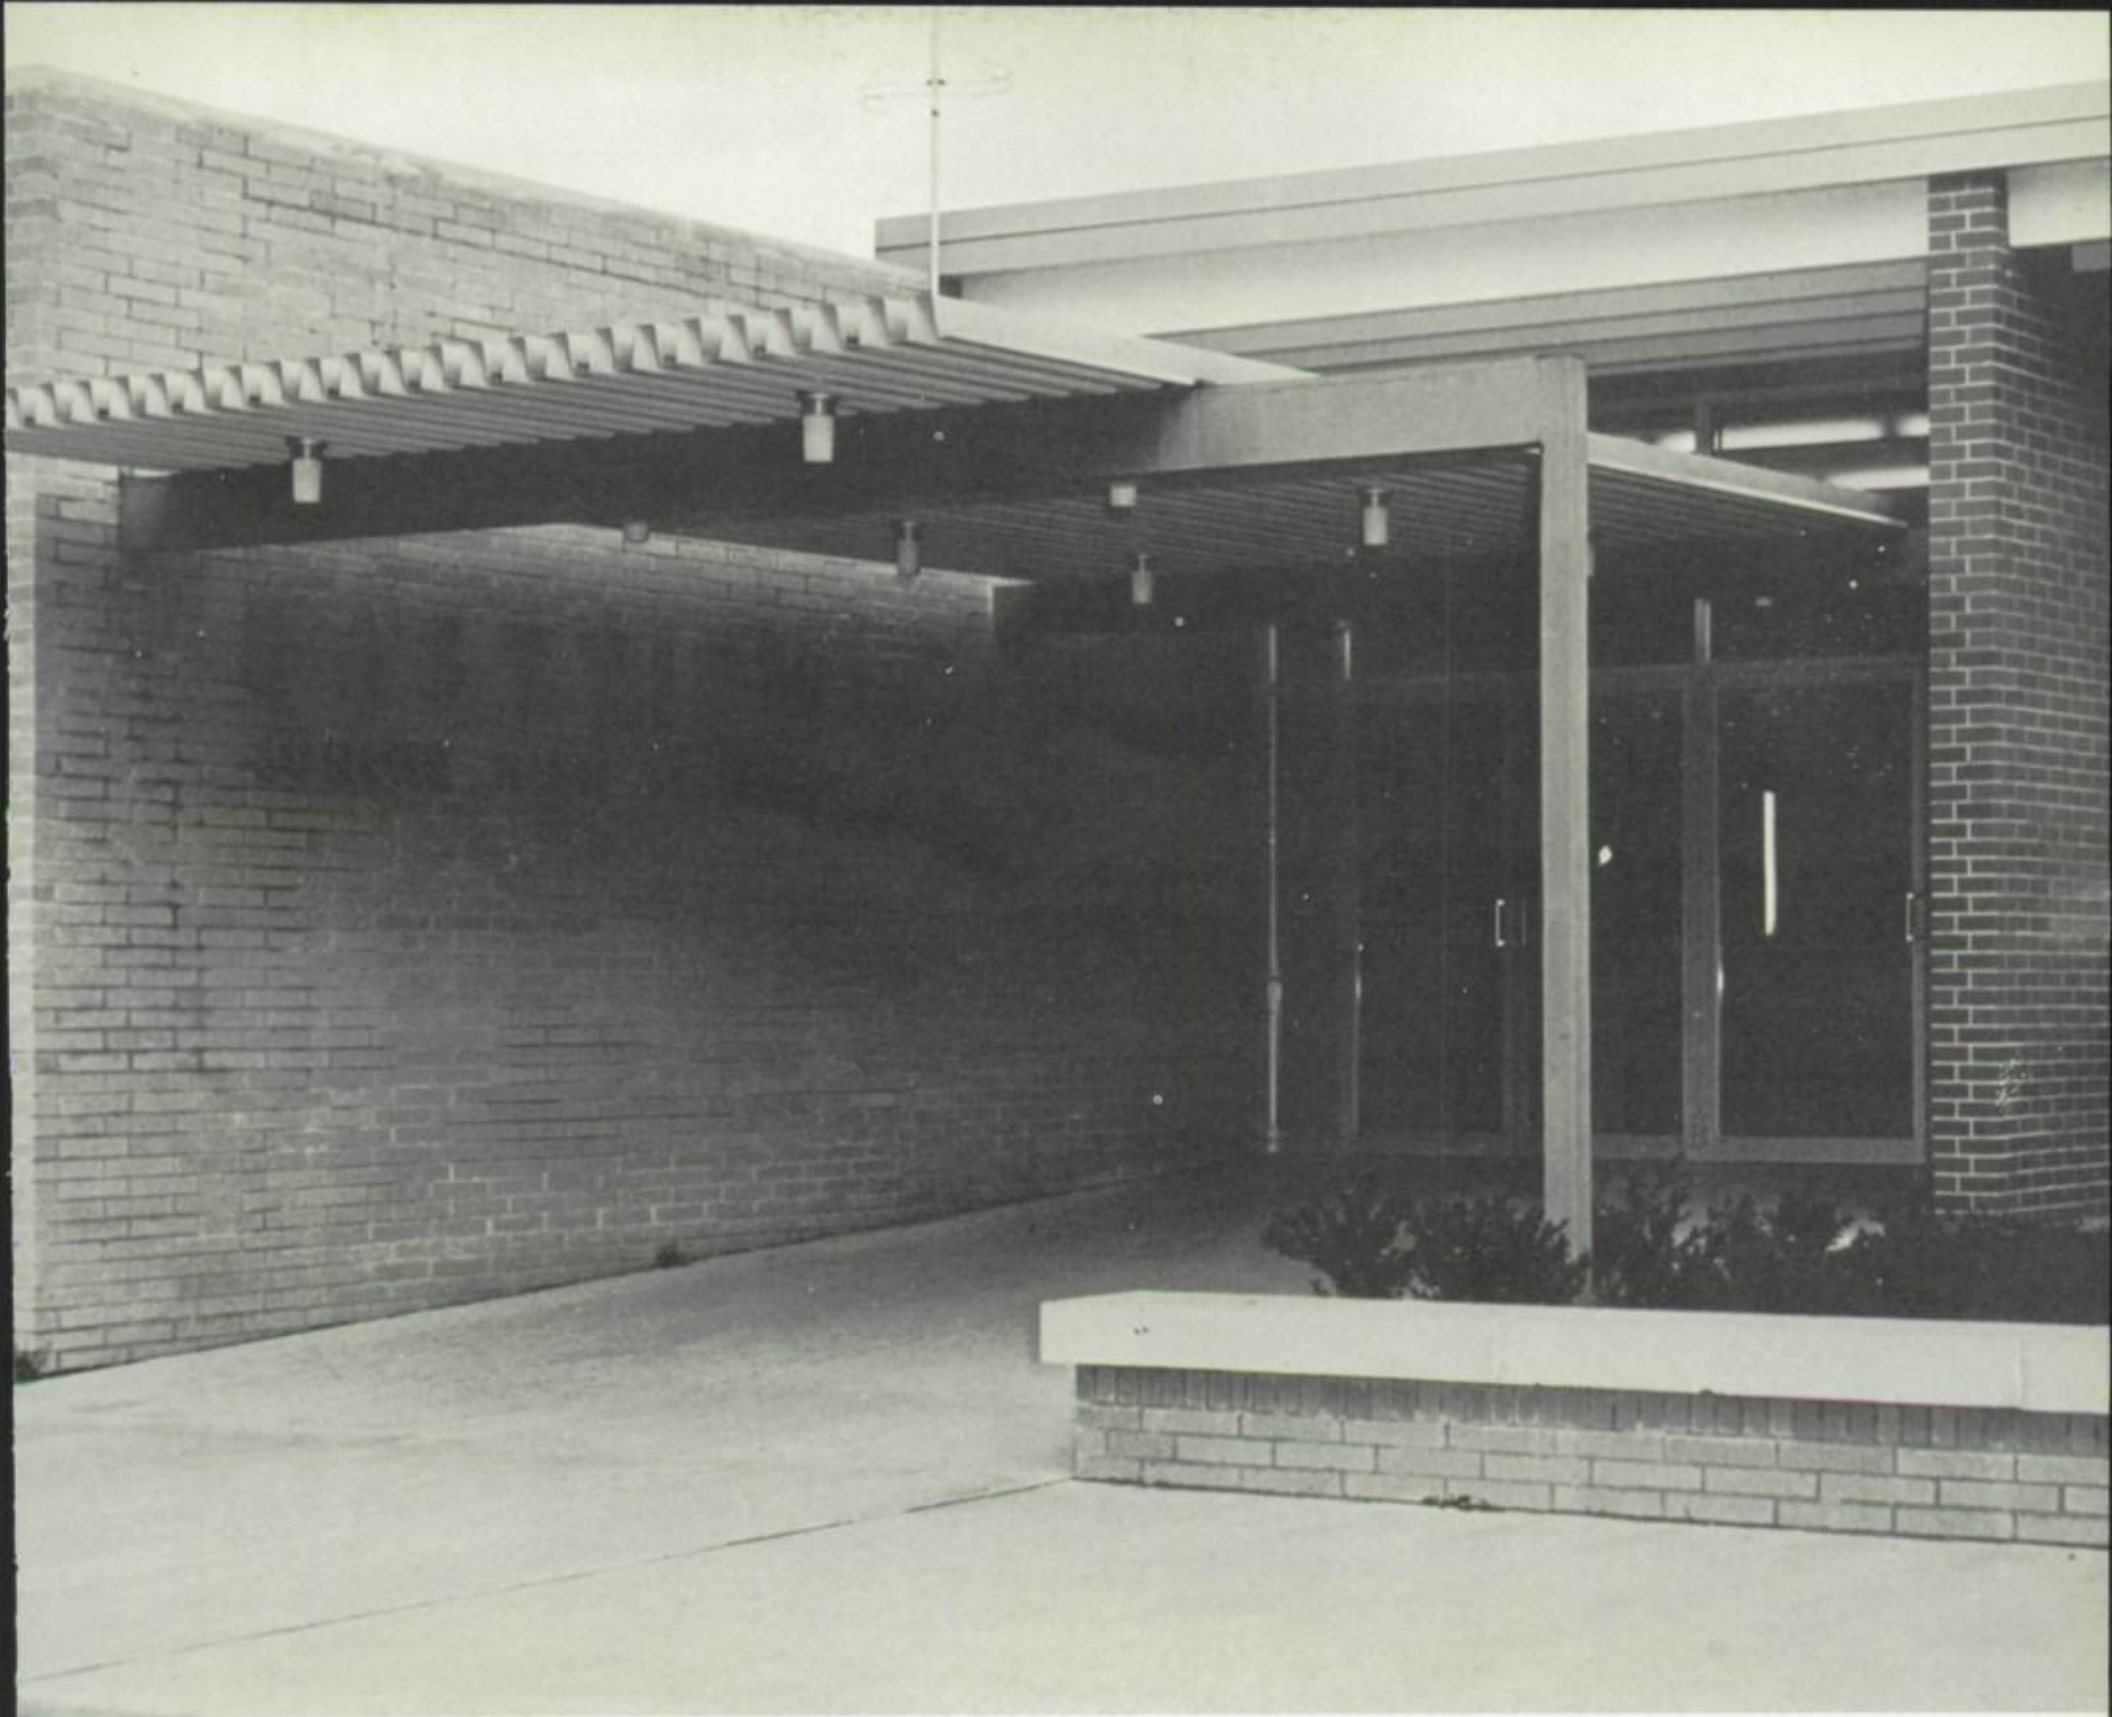

The Senior Ensemble sang two selections.

GRADUATION BRINGS YEAR TO AN END

At the closing of the program, the entire senior class sang the Alma Mater.
